

Who Are We?

We were established as an independent charitable organisation to provide support to the Dunedin Symphony Orchestra (formerly the Southern Sinfonia).

We also provide a range of other social and musical activities and assist with fundraising.

And we enjoy our music – especially DSO music. Dunedin has a wonderful orchestra

 Otago Packaging Supplies Ltd

We thank Otago Packaging Supplies for their continued generous sponsorship of wine goblets for our fund raisers such as the musical tastings in July, and for the clear cups for juices.

As a Friend, you can help us with:

- Mail-outs

Assisting with the occasional brochure and newsletter mail-out on a weekday morning

- Programme and CD Sales

Assisting with programme and artist CD sales at concerts

Chairman's Message

The Friends have given a final financial helping hand to support the successful installation of the Orchestra at Hanover Hall. One of the items we will pay for is the removal of those awful Monkey Bar signs, for scaffolding and a screwdriver.

As always, we always arrange attractive events. In 2018 we have our annual favourite "Musical Tastings" – the wines this year will come from Don Hatfield's and Dick Bunton's (Varsity vs Green Island!) vineyards in Central. Judy Bellingham will tell us how to sight read music using her book, and Marian Weaver will tell us the barbershop story.

And more besides, all put more in our bank, to help our orchestra. Book now and look forward to a great year!
